WILLIAM MAIDMENT

FINE ART

Most of my inspiration for my personal investigation came from Whitby and Robin Hood's Bay architecture, in particular the churches. John Piper inspired my colour scheme and fuelled my experiments with media and techniques. My final piece was my favourite piece of the whole project because I was using a new surface I had discovered through my experiments and the end result was exciting both visually and as a process.

GRAPHIC DESIGN

Inspiration for my personal investigation came from magazines like GQ and Cosmopolitan. Photographers like David Bailey and Annie Leibovitz really inspired my work. My final piece was my favourite piece of the project because I didn't have to choose one piece to use in detail, I got to use many pieces and do them all well.

Graphic design for the last two years has interested me more than my other subjects and I'm looking forward to going to university to study in more detail.
